nano merges art and science by presenting the world of nanotechnology through a series of participatory installations.

The exhibition is a collaboration between LACMALab and a UCLA team of nanoscience, media arts, and humanities experts, is free to the public and runs December 14, 2003 through September 6, 2004 in LACMA's Boone Children's Gallery. Noon to 5 pm. Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas day, and Wednesdays.

For more information: http://www.lacmalab.org/